Under the Pastoral Care of the Conventual Franciscans

Welcome back! It is with great joy that we welcome back our parishioners to their church this weekend even if it is only a small representation of our Faith community due to the risk of virus. At the same time, we need to keep in mind that the risk of contagion is still present. Therefore the obligation to attend Mass on Sunday is still dispensed for the diocese of Parramatta. If you are experiencing any symptoms of illness, or anyone in your family is ill, you should remain home. Realize that if we become a Corona hot spot, the government will remove our ability to gather for Mass to prevent spread.

To attend one of our weekend (or week day) Masses, just reserve a space (only 50 people at a time with the current law) from the parish website at olorparishkellyville.org.au. (Simply scroll down and click on the big red Mass button and then select a day and time.)

You can also join us for the Mass on his feast day on Saturday, 13 June. May St. Anthony keep us all safe and help the world find health and relief through the Christ Child's healing gaze!

Daily Masses next week Our Lady of the Rosary Kellyville will be offering daily Mass at 11am and 7pm and only up to 50 people will be allowed in the church and 1.5 meters between persons must be maintained. You will need to register as required by law. Unfortunately, no one may stand outside. The church will be open from 10.30am and 6.30pm respectively, and closed immediately following the Mass for your protection. In the meantime you are dispensed from the obligation of Sunday Mass. The link for registering for Daily Mass is <https://www.trybooking.com/BJWLT>

Confessions on Saturday Our Lady of the Rosary, Kellyville, will offer the Sacrament of Confession on Saturdays from 10-10.30am or until the last penitent is done. Please stand outside the church building, sign in your contact details and wait until the confessional is open.

Pope's prayer intention for June: Compassion for the world amidst Covid-19 pandemic: "Many people suffer due to the great difficulties they endure. We can help them by accompanying them along an itinerary full of compassion which transforms people's lives. It brings them closer to the Heart of Christ, which welcomes all of us into the revolution of tenderness. We pray that all those who suffer may find their way in life, allowing themselves to be touched by the Heart of Jesus."

GOSPEL
P. The Lord be with you.
R. And with your spirit.
P. A reading from the holy Gospel according to John.
R. Glory to you, O Lord.
God sent his Son to save the world through him.
Jesus said to Nicodemus,
‘God loved the world so much
that he gave his only Son,
so that everyone who believes in him may not be lost
but may have eternal life.
For God sent his Son into the world
not to condemn the world,
but so that through him the world might
be saved.
No one who believes in him will be condemned;
but whoever refuses to believe is condemned already,
because he has refused to believe in the name of God’s only Son.’

The Gospel of the Lord.
R. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

REFLECTIONS ON THE GOSPEL

GOD OF LOVE

The feast of the Holy Trinity brings the whole long sweep of Lent and Eastertide to an end. It invites us to sit back, as it were, and reflect upon the God who has been revealed in the full scope of the paschal mystery.
As sometimes presented, the doctrine of the Trinity can appear to be nothing but an arid theological puzzle. For the early Christians it was nothing of the kind. They held firmly to the Jewish belief that there was only one God. Yet as they reflected upon what they had experienced in all the events surrounding the person of Jesus Christ and the subsequent gift of the Spirit, they could only conclude that they had been addressed and drawn into a divine communion of love.
Today’s feast, then, celebrates the nearness, rather than the remoteness, of God.
Each of the readings explores this in some way. But the Gospel, drawn from the concluding section of Jesus’ conversation with Nicodemus, most clearly brings out the continuity between the act of Christ in the paschal mystery and redemptive love of the Father.
The Father sent the Son, not to ‘judge’ (= condemn) the world, but to rescue it from its captivity to sin and death, and draw human beings into the communion of life and love that is the Godhead.
Judgement is not so much a future prospect as something that human beings determine for themselves by the way they respond to the revelation of God that comes to us through the life of Jesus and the grace of the Holy Spirit.

OUR SUNDAY CELEBRATION
THE MOST HOLY TRINITY / A
07 JUNE 2020

A GOD OF TENDERNESS. God did not wreak vengeance on the Israelites in the wilderness when they began to worship a golden calf. Rather, God came among them in tenderness and compassion, forgave their sin and restored the covenant. This God became incarnate in Jesus and dwells among us in the Spirit. As we marvel at the unconditional love of God we exclaim: Glory and praise forever!

The Lord God, ruler of all, merciful and loving.
With the two tablets of stone in his hands, Moses went up the mountain of Sinai in the early morning as the Lord had commanded him. And the Lord descended in the form of a cloud, and Moses stood with him there.

He called on the name of the Lord. The Lord passed before him and proclaimed, ‘Lord, Lord, a God of tenderness and compassion, slow to anger, rich in kindness and faithfulness.’ And Moses bowed down to the ground at once and worshipped. ‘If I have indeed won your favour, Lord,’ he said ‘let my Lord come with us, I beg. True, they are a headstrong people, but forgive us our faults and our sins, and adopt us as your heritage.

The word of the Lord.
R. Thanks be to God.
