A Prayer for children receiving their First Holy Communion

Dear Lord, We pray for families and children who are preparing to receive You in the sacrament of the Eucharist. May their minds and hearts be prepared to receive Your grace in this Holy moment. We humbly ask You to give our sacramental team Your wisdom, knowledge and faith to deliver Your message. Through your Holy Spirit, make us all understand that the price of Your death was to give us the opportunity to be reunited with You one day. Meanwhile, let us feel the joy of being a tabernacle of Your immeasurable Love. Amen.

This week Planned Giving Envelopes are available from the side door of the Church. Please collect yours if you intend to continue donating to the Parish using the envelope system. This Week : St Vincent De Paul Society Winter Appeal - Supporting the 'Working Homeless'

An emerging trend shows people are experiencing housing hardship and disadvantage despite being employed. These are people who hold jobs that should offer stability, yet they're sleeping in cars, tents or relying on the goodwill of others. As housing security becomes more precarious due to rising rents, cost-of-living pressures and a shortage of affordable housing, Vinnies is hearing daily from people who in years gone by would never have needed to seek support. Two years ago, 19% of people seeking assistance in NSW were experiencing homelessness or living in temporary accommodation. Today, that figure has grown to 30%. Funds raised through this week's Winter Appeal will ensure the Vinnies OLOR Conference can continue to provide a 'hand-up' and immediate practical relief to the working homeless and other vulnerable people in the local community.

Our Parish Knitting Group meets on Wednesday mornings from 10am until Noon. Join us if you have the morning free. 8ply wool would be most welcome to enable squares to be knitted for blankets for the poor.

First Sunday of the month Filipino Mass

Please join us on 7 July at 3pm for our monthly Filipino Mass when there will be a blessing for those who are celebrating birthdays and other special occasions. Please bring a plate to share in the old hall, after Mass.

GOSPEL Mk 4: 35-41

P. The Lord be with you.
R. And with your spirit.

P. A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark.
R. Glory to you, O Lord.

Who can this be? Even the wind and the sea obey him.

With the coming of evening, Jesus said to his disciples, ‘Let us cross over to the other side.’ And leaving the crowd behind they took him, just as he was, in the boat; and there were other boats with him. Then it began to blow a gale and the waves were breaking into the boat so that it was almost swamped. But he was in the stern, his head on the cushion, asleep. They woke him and said to him, ‘Master, do you not care? We are going down!’ And he woke up and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, ‘Quiet now! Be calm!’ And the wind dropped, and all was calm again. Then he said to them, ‘Why are you so frightened? How is it that you have no faith?’ They were filled with awe and said to one another, ‘Who can this be? Even the wind and the sea obey him.’

The Gospel of the Lord.
R. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

HOMILY

PROFESSION OF FAITH APOSTLES’ CREED

Or the Nicene Creed may be said.

I believe in God, / the Father almighty, / Creator of heaven and earth, / and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, / who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, / born of the Virgin Mary, / suffered under Pontius Pilate, / was crucified, died and was buried; / he descended into hell; / on the third day he rose again from the dead; / he ascended into heaven, / and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; / from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. / I believe in the Holy Spirit, / the holy catholic Church, / the communion of saints, / the forgiveness of sins, / the resurrection of the body, / and life everlasting. Amen.

BREAKING OPEN THE WORD

WHO THEN IS THIS?

God speaks out of the storm (tempest) to Job in the first reading asking him whether he was there when God created the world. The imagery of the sea, waves and wind will reappear in our Gospel with the storm on the sea. Following on from last week and the use of parables, Jesus invites the disciples to go across to the other side. This body of water, called a sea, is a lake and subject to squalls and storms at short notice. But let’s not get too literal. Note ‘they took him in the boat, just as he was’. They left the crowd behind and there were other boats with him.

Quickly the drama of the storm erupts. This great storm has waves swamping the boat. In the midst of this ‘he was in the stern asleep on the cushion’. The disciples address him as ‘Teacher’ asking whether he cares that they are perishing? Waking, Jesus rebukes the wind and says to the sea ‘Quiet now, be calm’. The wind ceases and there is calm. Jesus’ words transform the great storm to a great calm. Jesus’ questions to those in the boat, ‘Why are you afraid? Have you still no faith?’, are not for them only, but a challenge to us now. Let us hear the words of Paul to the Corinthians: ‘if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; behold, everything has become new.’

OUR SUNDAY CELEBRATION

TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME / B 23 JUNE 2024

CALMING THE STORM. When a storm blew up on the sea of Galilee, Jesus’ disciples feared that their boat would be swamped by the waves. But Jesus, who was with them, calmed the sea. At times we can feel that we are being swamped by various troubles. But Jesus is with us to protect us. Like the apostle Paul we are overwhelmed, not by storms and troubles, but by the love of God made visible in Christ Jesus.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING Job 38: 1, 8-11

A reading from the book of Job.
Here I have set the boundaries of the sea.

From the heart of the tempest the Lord gave Job his answer. He said:

Who pent up the sea behind closed doors when it leapt tumultuous out of the womb, when I wrapped it in a robe of mist and made black clouds its swaddling bands; when I marked the bounds it was not to cross and made it fast with a bolted gate? Come thus far, I said, and no farther: here your proud waves shall break.

The word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

RESP PSALM Ps 106: 23-26, 28-31. R. v. 1

R. Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.

or

R. Alleluia!

- Some sailed to the sea in ships / to trade on the mighty waters. / These men have seen the Lord’s deeds, / the wonders he does in the deep. R.
- For he spoke; he summoned the gale, / tossing the waves of the sea / up to heaven and back into the deep; / their soul melted away in their distress. R.
- Then they cried to the Lord in their need / and he rescued them from their distress. / He stilled the storm to a whisper: / all the waves of the sea were hushed. R.
- They rejoiced because of the calm / and he led them to the haven they desired. / Let them thank the Lord for his love, / the wonders he does for men. R.

SECOND READING 2 Cor 5: 14-17

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians.
All things are made new.

The love of Christ overwhelms us when we reflect that if one man has died for all, then all men should be dead; and the reason he died for all was so that living men should live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised to life for them.

From now onwards, therefore, we do not judge anyone by the standards of the flesh. Even if we did once know Christ in the flesh, that is not how we know him now. And for anyone who is in Christ, there is a new creation; the old creation has gone, and now the new one is here.

The word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION Lk 7: 16

Alleluia, alleluia!

A great prophet has appeared among us; God has visited his people.

Alleluia!
