BREAKING OPEN THE WORD

CLAIMED BY THE FATHER
On the Fourth Sunday of Easter, our Gospel attention turns traditionally to John’s ‘parable’ of the Good Shepherd. Each of the lines in today’s Gospel deserves special and lingering attention. ‘The sheep that belong to me listen to my voice’: The sheep are the members of John’s Gospel household. Listening to the voice of Jesus is what links to the next line: Jesus ‘knows’ those who listen to him. ‘Know’ refers not to information about, but an intimate link with. Jesus ‘knows’ with a depth of intimate love. This intimacy flows over into the experience of ‘eternal life’ (the next line). It also brings about a communion that leads to identity and ‘being found’. If you have ever felt lost, either personally or in life direction, Jesus offers a centre, an eternal promise of identity that will never be taken away. This is the sense behind Jesus’ reassurance to John’s audience of never ‘being stolen’. Those who follow Jesus are claimed by the Father. They will always be found, and are one with Jesus’ God because, as John asserts at the Gospel’s conclusion, Jesus and the Father are ‘one’.
Today’s Gospel is rich and powerful. We celebrate Jesus’ love of us, his desire that we ‘know’ our communion with him and his Father. Through Jesus we are one, eternally, with the Father. He continues to shepherd us.

OUR SUNDAY CELEBRATION
FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER / C 11 MAY 2025

I KNOW MY SHEEP. The apostles faced much opposition as they proclaimed the Good News of Christ. Since then, many Christians have suffered martyrdom in great persecutions. Today’s Scripture readings make reference to such difficulties but they also offer a firm message of hope and consolation. The faithful followers of Jesus, those who listen to his voice, will have eternal life. They will never be lost forever or destroyed by evil forces. May these words console us as we strive to follow Jesus, the Good Shepherd, through the joys and struggles of life.

INTRODUCTORY RITES

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON cf. Ps 32:5-6
The merciful love of the Lord fills the earth; by the word of the Lord the heavens were made, alleluia.
GREETING
P. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.
R. Amen.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING Acts 13:14,43-52
A reading from the Acts of the Apostles
We are now turning to the gentiles.
Paul and Barnabas carried on from Perga till they reached Antioch in Pisidia. Here they went to synagogue on the sabbath and took their seats.
When the meeting broke up, many Jews and devout converts joined Paul and Barnabas, and in their talks with them Paul and Barnabas urged them to remain faithful to the grace God had given them.
The next sabbath almost the whole town assembled to hear the word of God. When they saw the crowds, the Jews, prompted by jealousy, used blasphemies and contradicted everything Paul said. Then Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly, ‘We had to proclaim the word of God to you first, but since you have rejected it, since you do not think yourselves worthy of eternal life, we must turn to the pagans. For this is what the Lord commanded us to do when he said:
I have made you a light for the nations, so that my salvation may reach the ends of the earth.’
It made the pagans very happy to hear this and they thanked the Lord for his message; all who were destined for eternal life became believers. Thus the word of the Lord spread through the whole countryside.
But the Jews worked upon some of the devout women of the upper classes and the leading men of the city and persuaded them to turn against Paul and Barnabas and expel them from their territory. So they shook the dust from their feet in defiance and went off to Iconium; but the disciples were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit.
The word of the Lord.
R. Thanks be to God.

GLORIA
Glory to God in the highest, / and on earth peace to people of good will. / We praise you, / we bless you, / we adore you, / we glorify you, / we give you thanks for your great glory, / Lord God, heavenly King, / O God, almighty Father. / Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, / Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, / you take away the sins of the world, / have mercy on us; / you take away the sins of the world, / receive our prayer; / you are seated at the right hand of the Father, / have mercy on us. / For you alone are the Holy One, / you alone are the Lord, / you alone are the Most High, / Jesus Christ, / with the Holy Spirit, / in the glory of God the Father. / Amen.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Ps 99:1-3.5
R. We are his people, the sheep of his flock. (or Alleluia!)
1. Cry out with joy to the Lord, all the earth. Serve the Lord with gladness. / Come before him, singing for joy. R.
2. Know that he, the Lord, is God. / He made us, we belong to him, / we are his people, the sheep of his flock. R.
3. Indeed, how good is the Lord, / eternal his merciful love. / He is faithful from age to age. R.
SECOND READING Apoc 7:9,14-17
A reading from the book of the Apocalypse
The Lamb who is at the throne will be their shepherd and will lead them to springs of living water.
I, John, saw a huge number, impossible to count, of people from every nation, race, tribe and language; they were standing in front of the throne and in front of the Lamb, dressed in white robes and holding palms in their hands. One of the elders said to me, ‘These are the people who have been through the great persecution, and because they have washed their robes white again in the blood of the Lamb, they now stand in front of God’s throne and serve him day and night in his sanctuary; and the One who sits on the throne will spread his tent over them. They will never hunger or thirst again; neither the sun nor scorching wind will ever plague them, because the Lamb who is at the throne will be their shepherd and will lead them to springs of living water; and God will wipe away all tears from their eyes.’
The word of the Lord.
R. Thanks be to God.
